

Biography for Hannah Simon

Hannah is in charge of insurance administration and processing of the Capital Advisory Group, LLC and the Capital Advisory Group Insurance Services, LLC. Hannah is and an Executive Assistant and insurance licensed in health and life in the state on Minnesota.

“I work closely with many of our advisors and assist with servicing their clients. I thoroughly enjoy the detail end of what I do. I love servicing and helping people, which makes work so enjoyable. Also, our work environment is fun and team-oriented. I pride myself in being able to live life ethically, honestly, and with integrity.”

While away from work, Hannah loves spending time with her family, enjoying the weather when is not frigid, watching hockey, live music, dancing, working out, writing, and studying for the Series 7 Securities License exam.

